SOUTH FRONTENAC MUSEUM

The museum is dedicated to preserving and sharing the stories of the people who have lived here over the centuries, of their struggles to scrape out a living for their families, and of the geology of this amazing landscape that defines and constrains the economic options. For more information, check out their new website <http://southfrontenacmuseum.ca/>

LIVING HERE

BOXBOARD VS CARDBOARD

With Christmas quickly approaching, a reminder of which is which:

Boxboard – One Ply – cracker/cereal boxes - goes out paper week, please flatten

Cardboard – More than One Ply (waffle weave between layers) - shoeboxes, heavier gage boxes - goes cans & plastics week, flattened & taped/tied – It's all recyclable BUT Please DO NOT mix them!

REMINDER FROM SOUTH FRONTENAC FIRE AND RESCUE

By-Law 2012-68 Regulates Open Air Burning for the Township of South Frontenac. Please remember that Open Air Burning of Garbage is PROHIBITED by the Fire Protection and Prevention Act and the Environmental Protection Act. Property owners are expected to follow the By-Law and are reminded that fines can be issued for non-compliance related to burning materials not permitted by regulation

Holiday Fire Safety - Keep your tree fire free! Always make sure your live trees are immersed in water at all times, and keep all candles and open flames away from the Christmas tree!

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE DEPOT

The HHW Depot will be open on December 13th from 3:00 pm to 7:00 pm. (This is the only date for December). Open dates will be published monthly in this banner as well as on our website. Please remember that accepted items are hazardous materials, electronics and bale wrap only. A full listing of accepted materials may be found on our website under Living Here/Solid Waste/Recycling/Household Hazardous Waste.
