SOUTH FRONTENAC MUSEUM SUMMER OPENING

The Summer Opening will take place Saturday, May 18, 1-4 p.m. at 5595 Road 38 (30 minutes north on Gardiners Road) in Hartington.

The theme of this year's exhibit is South Frontenac from 1900 to 1929 – Before, During, and After the Great War. The centerpiece is our extensive collection of artifacts and records related to the 146th Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force – a battalion created to recruit soldiers from Frontenac, and Lennox and Addington. Supporting displays illustrate the contribution of women to the war effort. There are also exhibits of tools and other items used on the home front.

The museum will be open Saturday, Sunday, and Wednesday afternoons from 1-4. All are welcome. Admission is by donation. For more information call 613-376-3027 x2600, or follow us at <http://SouthFrontenacMuseum.ca> or <https://www.facebook.com/SouthFrontenacMuseum/>.
